

Position Title :

Travel Consultant - Domestic Destinations

As a major player in the student group travel market, Omnitour is constantly evolving. Our family travel agency is currently looking to expand its extraordinary team of enthusiasts!

Tasks :

- Work as a team to offer tailor-made trips to primary and secondary school students.
- Advise, build and organize itineraries according to the needs of each group.
- Find potential customers by submitting personalized offers.
- Collaborate with the coordination team to negotiate and manage the means of transportation, accommodation, catering, attractions or activities that suit the needs of the clientele.
- Participate in various exhibitions and trade fairs to meet with clients and suppliers.
- Explore and deepen your knowledge of our travel destinations by participating in familiarization trips.
- All other related tasks

Requirements :

- Bilingual (trilingual an asset). Excellent French and English writing skills.
- Hold a collegial diploma in tourism or a university degree related to the field or any other relevant experience.
- Good knowledge of electronic tools and web environment (Google Suite)
- Have a good knowledge of the regions of Canada, mainly Quebec and Ontario.

Terms :

- Starting date: as soon as possible
- Full time position, 35 hours/week, Monday to Friday.
- Vacation time during summer and the holiday season, according to the school calendar.
- Group insurance plans and group RRSPs.
- Salary: Experience based, to be determined.

Send your CV by email to Étienne Morissette at emorissette@omnàitour.ca or come and meet us at 105, côte de la Montagne, bureau 601, Québec (QC) G1K 4E4. It is a pleasure to meet you !